‡ Vendor Fair Update

Just a quick update on the Vendor/Craft Fair...I will be at the church on 11/15/19, 11am-4pm setting up for Saturday. I would still love some help with taping off sites, moving furniture and creating signs/advertising signs. Any help appreciated! The event starts at 10am on Saturday 11/16/19 but at 7am, I will also need help setting up tents and tables/chairs- whatever I don't get accomplished on Friday.

So far we have 45 vendors, still have outdoor spots open if anyone is interested, but they would have to bring their own pop up tent. We have hotdogs/oyster scald/sweet treats bake sale/hot coco and cider...do we need more food? Gretchen Sirk has offered to run the bake sale and is still needing donations... please sign up in back of the church with what you can bake to donate to the bake sale or message me directly. Shanz0625@gmail.com

Brown bag auction: so far I have donations from a couple florists with St. Mary's themed items, floral arrangements, Chaptico Market gift card, gift card for Mr. Tire oil changes, Apple Basket gift card, Texas Roadhouse basket, ACE Hardware basket, Russell Farms basket, wine tasting gift card Leonardtown, wine basket from Still Creek...and a couple more should be responding soon. Some of our vendors have chipped in too. If you know of a local business who would like to participate please let me know ASAP.

Let's pray the weather holds up for us... thanks to all who have volunteered to help this year! Our FB advertising has already 500+ people interested so the turn out should be great this year!!!

Thanks everyone!

Planting Seeds

Seeds are also planted in faith, believing that they hold hope for the future bearing of fruit.

Dear Parish Family,

It's exciting to witness the many ways in which the generous planting of seeds by parishioners at Christ Church bear fruit. Because of those seeds Christ Church is able to nurture life-giving, joyful ministries focused both inside and outside of our parish walls.

In addition to ministries that have existed for decades, such as our Music Ministry, Altar Guild, etc., new ministries have emerged to meet specific and evolving needs. Friday Night Fellowship, Outreach to Students at Chopticon High School, Adult Christian Formation Offerings, Community of Hope Pastoral Care Givers, are just a few examples of ministries that have sprung to life in the last couple of years.

This year's Annual Giving theme, Planting Seeds, reminds us that our financial support, in the form of a pledge to the Operating Budget, not only helps to further the current mission and ministries of Christ Church, but also to ensure the future work of our church.

Your past financial support has been crucial to the work of Christ Church. Now, as we begin this year's Annual Giving Campaign, we hope we can count on you again. Included with this mailing is a pledge card for 2020. Please prayerfully consider increasing your annual pledge so that we may continue to sustain and grow our ministries, extend our reach, and share God's love with even more people. Our Commitment Sunday will be November 17th.

If you have any questions, or would like to further discuss making a financial pledge to Christ Church, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

The Rev. Christopher D. Jubinski,
Rector of Christ Church

REFLECTIONS ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS

(NOV. 10, 2019) THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST (PROPER 27C)

Welcome to Christ Church. The final Sundays in the church year always direct us toward the end of time and the end of human life. So today's gospel reading is a confrontation between Jesus and the Sadducees, a group within Judaism who did not believe in resurrection, as did Jesus and the Pharisees. They try to ridicule the doctrine of resurrection by giving a theoretical application of the Old Testament law that if a man died childless his brother must marry the widow and produce a child to carry on the dead man's name. Jesus responds that the concern of the law to perpetuate the human race is only for this life. The resurrection life never ends, thus procreation is not needed in that life. Jesus emphasizes that all people are alive in God, thus undercutting the exclusivity of many of his contemporaries.

Haggai was a sixth-century B.C. prophet who led the way in the rebuilding of the temple in Jerusalem after the Babylonian captivity was ended. Here we see that the promise made through the earlier prophets was fulfilled; a remnant of the people was saved and they were restored to their land.

The second reading today is from 2 Thessalonians. This church had repeated difficulties due to some members' expectation that Jesus' return was due at any moment. Both letters to this church deal primarily with the need for Christians to live at all times as though the Lord is at hand, regardless of when he will actually return.

We gather in the Eucharist as people already in the resurrection life because of our baptism. We gather to share and celebrate a foretaste of the life to come, which will never end. We rejoice that God is God of the living and that our union with God can never end.

BULLETIN INSERTS

November 10, 2019 – Pentecost 22 (C)

Meet Our Missionaries: Talley Breedlove, Young Adult Service Corps

An update from Talley Breedlove, a member of the Young Adult Service Corps (YASC) serving in the Philippines:

Here in Santiago, Philippines, I am working with multiple organizations. The majority of my time is spent with E-CARE which is an Asset-Based Community Development organization run by the Episcopal Church of the Philippines partnering with community associations. While in the office with E-CARE, I have been working on learning more about the issues facing the communities where we work, planning Bible studies, and learning the local language, Ilocano.

A lot of E-CARE's work is done out in the communities. Currently, we are leading trainings on visioning and goal-setting in order to enhance their process towards self-reliance. To start the visits, I am leading Bible studies focused on trusting God and being members of Christ's body. I also get to meet and talk with locals about their experiences with E-CARE. I am interviewing members of the associations with the goal of putting together case studies.

When I am not with E-CARE, I am with the loan organizations and cooperative run by the diocese. There I am learning about the operations of these organizations and financial management. I also go on community visits with them to collect payments as well as to introduce the cooperative to new communities.

Why did you choose to serve as a YASCer?

I applied to YASC at a time when I was frustrated trying to figure out the next big step forward after college. I knew my goal in life was to serve others and I also knew God was calling me to serve the Church, but a clear path was not appearing. My church's deacon and a retired priest both mentioned volunteer opportunities within the church. My bachelor's degree is in Global Studies, I studied abroad multiple times, and I have an interest in cross-cultural understanding so the idea of serving abroad made more sense to me than serving domestically. I applied, still unsure if I was ready for YASC and whether it was the right fit for me. At the discernment retreat, I learned how the staff work to place volunteers in placements that interest them. I also learned about a lot of placements that would provide me with skills and experiences that interested me. Those factors, along with the feeling that I would be sent with a network of support, convinced me that YASC was the right fit.

How can we pray for you and the people you work with?

My daily prayer is for God to use me to serve others and for me to be open and willing to whatever that calls me to do. If you would pray that prayer with me, I would be so grateful. The Episcopal Church of the Philippines' current vision is to create "scripture-rooted, spirit-fired, and disciplined parishes." I ask for prayers also that we can be ignited with passion for being part of Christ's body.

You can continue to follow and find out about Talley's mission on her blog at breedlovetk.wixsite.com/followingthelamb. Learn more about the Young Adult Service Corps at iam.ec/YASC.
