

WE WELCOME MICHELLE HODGE AS OUR NEW PARISH ADMINISTRATOR!

Michelle moved to the area from South Carolina in 2016 to be with her Fiancée, John. Her favorite things to do are going to yard sales, flea markets and auctions. Moose, her Yorkie, is her sidekick. She says, "If you see me out and about chances are he will be with me." She loves this area and feel so blessed to be a part of Christ Episcopal Church.

What is that weird picture?

It is a QR Code. "QR" stands for "Quick Response", which refers to the instant access to the information hidden in the Code. The QR Code is a two-dimensional version of the barcode, known from product packaging in the supermarket. Christ Church will employ two different QR Codes. Both will allow anyone, especially visitors, to use their smartphone to scan the code and be directed to specific information. One code (found in our publications such as newsletters, bulletins, etc.) will immediately direct people to the parish website. The second code found on our "Welcome Cards" found in the pews will take visitors to a special webpage where they can supply contact information and request specific information about Christ Church.

REFLECTIONS ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS

(JULY 14, 2019) THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST—PROPER 10, YEAR C

Welcome to Christ Church. Our reading from the gospel of Luke today is the parable of the Good Samaritan. Thus, we are confronted in the liturgy with the radical call of God to love our neighbor as ourselves. Our participation in the Eucharist as the baptized people of God is far more than an action by which we receive God's grace for ourselves; it is our act of commitment to the ministry of self-giving love to others. The Prayers of the People in particular are expressive of this. By joining in prayer, we commit ourselves to active ministry to those for whom we pray.

After hearing many of the stories of Elijah and Elisha in the past weeks, we turn to a prophet who came soon after. Amos also was prophet in the kingdom of Israel and challenged the king and the royal court to return to faithfulness to God. Today Amos has preached at the royal sanctuary against the king's apostasy from the God of Israel. The king's priest demands he leave and addresses him with the insulting term "seer" which Amos rejects. He is simply a servant obeying his God.

Today we begin reading through the epistle to the Colossians. Scholars debate whether this letter was written by Paul or one of his later followers writing in his name. We are hearing the opening greeting to that church. It is the love that the people of that church share with each other which is the mark of their life in the Spirit: a sign of the obedience implanted in us by God.

The parable teaches us that every human being is our neighbor toward whom we have the ministry of love. We are given this ministry of active love toward others as the means of extending the saving and reconciling work of Christ to all humankind. Our celebration today, and at every gathering of the church, is meant to send us out into the world to make Christ known.
